1802022451 Companies and Bankruptcy

This course deals with the general theory of companies; their types whether they are shareholding, ordinary or mixed. This course also deals with the legal system of bankruptcy; and the pre-conditions in order to issue a decision of bankruptcy and the legal effects of on such a decision. In addition, the course highlights the legal rules governing factual conciliation.