1802022474 Social and Economic Legislations

This course consists of two parts:

1- Labour Law: this part defines labour Law, individual and joint labour contracts remunerations, labour hours, health and safety and employees rights
2- Social Security: this part deals mainly with employees' rights in social security in the cases of retirement, inability and need.